

Life Doesn't Have to be Deep

words & music
Dennis Selfridge

1) I searched the ashes and sifted for meaning, stared at the hole in the ground
2) I know a girl who's too old to be single, calls up her friend and she cries
4) I've got the feeling it comes to believing, I could be wrong but I'm not

I combed the rubble for some kind of reason, laughed at the ones that I found
She wants a husband who'll take what she's giving, too bad she don't like to try There's always something that's there for the reaching, I need to know what I've got

(3,4) Solemn occasions and bright decorations, All of the tokens we keep Solemn occasions and bright decorations, All of the choices we keep (3. Instrumental) Solemn occasions and bright decorations, Life doesn't have to be deep

People are prayin' and scoffin' and starin' until it puts them to sleep
People are prayin' and scoffin' and starin' until it puts them to sleep
People are prayin' and scoffin' and starin' until it puts them to sleep